

KLOVE comes to us on 88.9 out of wilmington, nc and is the only commercial free christian radio we have available. many local businesses play the station; it would be a tremendous loss if it were no longer available. the music is "family friendly" and the content is always uplifting. there is no other station like it available to our small community. please do not allow this very valuable station be lost.